HOME RULERS FOR BROWN

REPUBLICANS' TWO MEETINGS

BROWN SAYS CARTER CRITICIZED HIM FOR EMPLOYING TOO MANY HAWAIIANS.

William Aylett, returned member of the Hawaiian band, was one of the chief spellbinders at the Republican meeting held last night at Waikiki. One of the main propositions he advanced was to have tax collectors made county officers instead of Territorial. Aylett spoke for support for all the Republican candidates.

A. M. Brown was in his home precinct and was given an ovation. He remarked that he had a "cinch" in the precinct. He asked for support for all the party ticket and said:

"I ask you to support me as against the candidate of the Democrats, Curtis Iaukea because of the just and fair treatment I have given the Hawaiians. You know me well enough."

"On November 6, vote for me and the rest of the ticket and come aboard the canoe Alabama and ride to victory. The Democrats can climb into the Niuevela (Hot Chili Pepper) canoe and they will drift to disaster upon the beach. I don't want to go into this fight to win alone. If we lose a single man on that ticket we go down to defeat."

A. V. Gear repeated his confident predictions of success, and spoke of laborers' wages. "I have been criticized," he said "for asking the electors to come to me after my election and stating their wants and for asking them to ask me to supply their wants. I want to repeat that statement to you this evening. I will only be too glad to have you come to me and tell me your wants, for how can I otherwise know them. The laborer is worthy of his hire. I don't believe that a man can properly bring up his family for less than $1.50 a day."

William T. Rawns said that the Democratic organization and the Home Rule organization were opposed to Republicans this time and the Republicans must stand shoulder to shoulder and fight the common enemy. Rawlins told of what the Republicans had accomplished since they were in power.

The Republican party, he said, had done more in two years than the other parties could do in a thousand. The County Act needs amending and Republicans can amend it better than persons from other parties.

Rawlins urged the people to make no more distinctions between haoles

THE POLICE AND THE MACHINE

THE PRINCIPAL TOPICS OF TWO MEETINGS HELD BY DEMOCRATS YESTERDAY.

Democrats roared the "machine" at their meeting at Frank Harvey's Kailua residence last night. M. A. Silva was the first speaker. He said in part: "The Democratic party at its convention selected representative men for its ticket who, if put in office, will work for the people whom they represent."

"Your welfare demands that you vote for them on November 6. We, unlike the Republicans, are not in a position to tell you that we have done this and that, for the simple reason that the Democrats have never had a chance to do anything. Two years from now, however, if we're elected, we'll point with pride to what we've done."

"Any party in power too long is sure to get rusty and out of the habit of doing things for you and me. Knowing this to be a fact, let us make a clean sweep. Let us out with the old party and in with the new, vigorous one. Give the Democrats the chance for which they are asking. Kick the machine out of office. It is no good and in a small community like this is not needed. The Democrats have no machine and won't have one for the simple reason that if elected next month their good works will suffice to keep them in the offices to which your votes, I trust, will elect them."

C. H. Fat roasted the police for being a machine, which he said the Democrats ought to break up. He thought there should be a clean Democratic sweep of Oahu County.

E. L. Like also fell into the usual fashion of roasting the police and he called attention to the Democratic platform promise of $1.50 per day for laborers.

Charles Rose also paid respects to the police and the machine. He said that if elected auditor he would give a good administration. He had nothing against Bicknell except that he was a machine candidate.

W. A. Kinney discussed Brown at considerable length. He said that while Sheriff Brown was personally a nice man, he had showed himself incapable of enforcing the laws which he had pledged himself to enforce. In this respect he had proved himself to be a weak man and unworthy of re-election to his responsible office. Personally he was friendly to Brown, but politically, no.

He had heard that Brown counted

HOME RULERS ARE OUT FOR BROWN AND VIDA

ELECTION OF BROWN AND VIDA IS URGED AT HOME RULE MEETING LAST NIGHT IN PAUOA.

"I urge you to vote the Home Rule ticket from top to bottom. Do not vote for the other parties for they are not good. Vote for the Home Rulers, but don't forget to vote for Arthur M. Brown and Henry C. Vida."—J. M. Poepoe at Pauoa Home Ruler's meeting last night.

The Home Rulers have come out flat footed for A. M. Brown and Henry C. Vida for the sheriffships. Their public speakers are urging the election of those two men on account of their being "Friends of the Hawaiians." Probably the Home Rule vote will be cast nearly solid for the two Republican candidates.

The Home Rulers only held two meetings last evening. Their meeting at Moiliili was carried off badly by the Republicans to Waikiki, it being asserted by the Home Rulers that the Republicans even paid the car fare for the natives who would otherwise have attended the meeting at Moiliili.

The meeting at Palama was a rousing one a goodly number being present. D. Kalanokalani, Sr., Abraham Fernandez, J. M. Poepoe, Samuel Noar and other addressed the meeting. As soon as it was finished the speakers adjourned to Pauoa and again held a good meeting.

The Pauoa meeting was marred by a number of drunken men who insisted on orating much to the annoyance of the Home Rule speakers. However the meeting was carried out without a hitch.

The most startling thing which came out at the meeting of the Home Rulers was the championing of the cause of Arthur M. Brown, Republican candidate for sheriff and Henry C. Vida for deputy sheriff. The election of these two men were urged on account of their being friends of the natives. Their names were the signal for a great deal of cheering.

All of the Home Rule candidates spoke but J. M. Poepoe came out the strongest with the urging of the election of Brown and Vida.

To-night at Aala Park the ratification meeting of the Home Rulers will be held. A rousing meeting is assured.

A STORM-SWEPT KEY.
ELLIOTT KEY, October 29.—A tremendous storm is raging here.

BORDEN'S Malted Milk

HAS : NO : EQUAL

A Food---Not a Medicine

A scientific combination of all the nutritive elements of the richest cow's milk and the most wholesome cereals. Prepared by an improved process, which insures absolute purity and the highest possible food value.

Not a medicine; it is a food. Its first merit is that it is palatable. Dissolved in hot or cold water, it is very like new milk—the milk from the top of the bottle with more than its due proportion of cream. The delicate flavor of something besides milk recalls the aroma of baking bread, or of a fresh crisp cracker.

Easily assimilated by young children, convalescents and nursing mothers.

Enjoyed by people of all ages in perfect health. May be used as the basis of many drinks and dishes ordinarily prepared with fresh fluid milk.

In all of these combinations BORDEN'S MALTED MILK retains its high food value, while offering the additional advantages of small bulk, perfect keeping qualities, and entire freedom from the dangers which frequently attend the use of fluid milk furnished by unreliable dealers.

BORDEN'S MALTED MILK may be obtained of druggists and grocers generally.
